Tee Union Pole.

The good news of Monday and Tues day put it into the minds of our citizens | youd Fredericksburg. to take down the Union Pole on the Public Square and add some 25 feet to its stature, and raise it again amid joyous demonstrations for the Union of the Marshal. States bequeatted to us by the fathers. as their priceless legacy to us.

Patriotism at certain times requires vent; and it must speak out in some form. The raising of Liberty Poles by the Revolutionary sires has made this mode of expressing loyalty very appropriate, and we are pleased to see the Stars and Stripes floating out from ven-poles that have been raised by the spontaneous patriolism of the men

May it soon wave for the triumph of the government over the last rebel that has dared to lift a sacreligious hand to tear it down, and then in all time to come, the honored emblem of the hap-piest and freest nation on the globe. Good.—Speaking of Miss Anna E. Dickinson, the eloquent female orator, the New York Evening Post gives the may it remain until slavery of all kinds following : is destroyed and liberty and fraternity be the watchwords of the nations, and despots and traitors shall have an end. Hurrah for the Stars and S ripes !

Government stock.

We learn that the authorities ar hunting up the stock rightfully belonging to the government, which has found its way into private hands.

Last week some soldiers visited the farm of Col. Lynde and took some stock he had and was about to sell, claiming some of them are in this hall—Copper-that it belonged justly to the governheads, I believe they are called."

We do not know the merits of the restored case, and cannot tell whether Col. Lynde or the government had the best W. H. M. Fishback and Capt. Weaver, Voilet and Wash Stands, claim on the stock; but Gen. Blunt is of Johnson county, we learn additional thus makes an example of those in Yeager's Bushwhackers. towards the procedure Such action | Twenty two of them were at Black towards the procedure | Such action | Jack at 10 o'clock, on Friday night. | Secretaries, Cabinets, Chests; military District, by showing that hon- were taken.

will be brought to account. We trust Gen. Blunt will continue the good work, until all stolen property shall be restored to the government.

P. S. Col. Lynde has convinced Gen. Blunt that the stock taken, rightfully belongs to him, and the General has directed it to be returned to him. We rights and innocence.

THE WESTERN STAR, published at Lebanon, Ohio, has changed hands. Mr Scorr retires and is succeeded by Wm. HENRY CORWIN, son of Hon. Thomas Corwin; but as the new proprietor is now with his father in Mexico acting as his private Secretary, the but distributed among the poor and suf paper for the time will be under the fering people of that vicinity. This central of our esteemed friend, GEO. R. made General A. very popular, and SAGE, E-q, whose ready pen and varied acquirements will make the Star one of the ablest papers of that State. We welcome you, friend S., to the fraternity, with best wishes for your own and the Star's prosperity.

HARDWARE. - Messrs. Wilson & Hastings. Leavenworth, are doing a fine business in the Hardware line. They have all kinds of Agricultural Implements, as well as hardware, cutlery &c. and sell at the lowest prices going. Our readers in want of any thing in their line, should give them a call. They are gentlemen with whom it is a pleasare to trade, and will always accommodate to the nimost.

THE NEW MILL. - The frame of Mr. Smith's will was raised last Saturday. He expects to have it ready for running is time for the crop of the coming har- Changeable quarterly West. This will be a valuable improvement to the village.

Boots and Shors.-Messra. Sears & Earle, Delaware street, Leavenworth, have a large and varied stock of Boots and Shoes, which they are selling at very reasonable prices for the times. Some of their stock they sell at old prices, which are lower than they can be bought for in New York. Give them a call; you will find them accommodating and gentlemanly.

Wool-Growing.

Mr. Joseph Evans, of Jefferson County, near Oskaloosa, brought in his crop of wool to our City on yesterday and sold it to one of our merchants. It yielded him over thirteen hundred dollars, which he obtained from 531 sheep, He informs us that many of the farmers of his county are turning their attention to wool-growing. It is certainly the same time .- Conservative.
